INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Lucy Burns Institute, Inc. d/b/a Ballotpedia and Subsidiary
Middleton, Wisconsin

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Lucy Burns Institute, Inc. d/b/a Ballotpedia and Subsidiary (Election Data, LLC), collectively the "Organization", which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2023, and the related consolidated statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Lucy Burns Institute, Inc. d/b/a Ballotpedia and Subsidiary as of December 31, 2023, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Lucy Burns Institute, Inc. d/b/a Ballotpedia and Subsidiary and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Lucy Burns Institute, Inc. d/b/a Ballotpedia and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Lucy Burns Institute, Inc. d/b/a Ballotpedia and Subsidiary's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Lucy Burns Institute, Inc. d/b/a Ballotpedia and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF ACTIVITY

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Lucy Burns Institute, Inc. d/b/a Ballotpedia and its wholly owned subsidiary, Election Data, LLC (collectively, the “Organization”). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Nature of Operations

The Lucy Burns Institute, Inc., d/b/a Ballotpedia (the “Institute”), located in Middleton, Wisconsin, is a not-for profit organization whose mission is to help, through online media communications, preserve and expand knowledge by building an Encyclopedia of American Politics. The encyclopedia’s goal is to inform people about politics by providing accurate and objective information about politics at all levels of government. The Institute is firmly committed to factuality and covers local, state and federal politics. Content includes neutral, accurate, and verifiable information on government officials and the offices they hold, political issues and public policy, elections, candidates, and the influencers of politics.

The Institute’s primary programs consist of its elections and public policy coverage. These programs create online articles to aggregate information about:

- State and local ballot measures
- Federal incumbents and candidates including President and U.S. Congress
- U.S. Cabinet offices and officeholders
- State legislators, state executives and appointed officials at the statewide level
- State and federal courts and judges
- Local incumbents and candidates including city council, county board, special districts and school boards
- Influencers, both individuals and organizations, in politics including political parties
- Research on specific policy issues and proposed government reforms

The Institute also has other significant programs that are supported by restricted funding. They include: “BP Fellows”; “Education Policy”; “Endorsement Portal”; “ESG Policy”; “School Board Elections”; and “Administrative State.”

Election Data, LLC was formed in January 2022 for the purpose of collecting and selling aggregated election data to customers.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The consolidated financial statements are presented in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 958 dated August 2016, and the provisions of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) “Audit and Accounting Guide for Not-for-Profit Organizations” (the “Guide”).

Under the provisions of the Guide, net assets and revenues, and gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, the net assets of the Organization and changes therein are classified as follows:

- Net assets without donor restrictions: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Organization. The Organization’s Board may designate assets without restrictions for specific operational purposes from time to time.
- Net assets with donor restrictions: Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors, and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Organization or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, where by the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity.

Contributions

Unconditional contributions are recognized when pledged and recorded as net assets without donor restrictions or net assets with donor restrictions, depending on the existence and / or nature of any donor-imposed restrictions. Conditional promises to give are recognized when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Gifts of cash and other assets are reported with donor restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets.

When a restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or a purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as net assets without donor restriction support. Donations of property and equipment are recorded as support at their estimated fair value at the date of donation. Contributions restricted for the acquisition of land, buildings, and equipment are reported as net assets without donor restriction upon acquisition of the assets and the assets are placed in service.

Revenue and Revenue Recognition

The Organization recognizes contributions when cash, securities or other assets; an unconditional promise to give; or a notification of a beneficial interest is received. Conditional promises to give - that is, those with a measurable performance or other barrier and a right of return - are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been met.

The Organization has adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), as amended as management believes the standard improves the usefulness and understandability of the Organization's financial reporting.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash and cash equivalents

The Organization considers all investments with an original maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents consist of demand deposits in banks, cash on hand, money market investments, and treasury bills that approximate cost.

The Organization maintains its cash and cash equivalents in certain accounts that, at times, may exceed the federally insured limits. Cash in bank deposit accounts are guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000 per account. At December 31, 2023, the Organization had approximately $4,200,000 of cash and cash equivalents in accounts that exceeded FDIC insured limits. However, the Organization has never experienced any loss in such accounts and management does not believe it is exposed to any significant credit (or other) risk associated with its cash and cash equivalents.

Accounts and Contributions Receivable

Accounts and contributions receivable are carried at anticipated net realizable value. The Organization will establish an allowance for doubtful accounts based on historical collection experience and a review of outstanding amounts receivable. A receivable is considered past due if the Organization has not received payment within agreed upon stated terms. After all attempts to collect have failed, the receivable is written off against the allowance for doubtful accounts if needed. At December 31, 2023, management considered all amounts to be fully collectible and accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts has been established.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment with a projected useful life exceeding one year and in excess of $500 are recorded at cost. Depreciation is computed principally using the straight-line method, based on estimated useful lives of the assets. Costs of maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are charged to expense when incurred.

Donations of property and equipment are recorded as support at their estimated fair value at the date of donation. Such donations are reported as unrestricted support unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted support. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those donated assets must be maintained, the Organization reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor.

Property and equipment, with an acquisition cost totaling $10,000, were fully depreciated at December 31, 2023.

Deferred Revenue

Amounts received in advance of services are deferred and recognized in income when the services are provided.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Leases

The Organization accounts for leases in accordance with ASC Topic 842, Leases. For any new or modified lease, the Organization, at inception of the contract, determines whether a contract is or contains a lease. A lease exists when a contract conveys the right to control the use of identified property and equipment for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Organization records right-of-use ("ROU") assets and lease obligations for its finance and operating leases, which are initially recognized based on the discounted future lease payments over the term of the lease. When the rate implicit in the Organization's leases is not readily determinable, the Organization's applicable incremental borrowing rate at lease inception is used in calculating the present value of the sum of the lease payments. Relevant information used in determining the Organization's incremental borrowing rate includes the duration of the lease, location of the lease, and the Organization's credit risk relative to risk-free market rates.

The lease term is defined as the non-cancelable period of the lease plus any options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain the Organization will exercise the option. Leases, and any leasehold improvements, are depreciated over the expected lease term. Additionally, certain leases include renewal or termination options, which can be exercised at the Organization's discretion. Lease terms include the noncancelable portion of the underlying leases along with any reasonably certain lease periods associated with available renewal periods. The Organization's leases do not contain any residual value guarantees or material restrictive covenants.

The Organization determines if an arrangement is a lease at contract inception. Arrangements that are leases with an initial term of 12 months or less are not recorded in the financial statements and the Organization recognizes lease expense for these leases on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

ROU assets are subject to the long-lived asset impairment guidance in ASC Topic 360-10, Property, Plant, and Equipment. The Organization monitors for events or changes in circumstances that require a reassessment of a lease. When a reassessment results in the remeasurement of a lease liability, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the corresponding ROU asset – unless doing so would reduce the carrying amount of the ROU asset to an amount less than zero.

Measure of Operations

The statements of activities and changes in net assets reports all changes in net assets, including changes in net assets from operating and non-operating activities. Operating activities consist of those items attributable to the Organization's ongoing activities. Non-operating activities are limited to resources that generate return from investments, endowment contributions, financing costs, and other activities considered to be of a more unusual or nonrecurring nature.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The consolidated financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributable to one or more program or supporting functions of the Organization. Therefore, these expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include payroll expenses – which are allocated based on estimated time and effort. All other expenses are allocated based on the benefit received, estimates of time and costs of specific technology utilized and / or estimates of time and effort.

Although the methods of allocation used are considered reasonable, other methods could be used that would produce a different amount.

Tax Status

The Institute is a not-for-profit organization that has tax-exempt status under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3). For tax reporting purposes, Election Data, LLC is a disregarded pass-through subsidiary of the Institute. Net income that is not directly related to the Organization's tax-exempt purpose would be subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Advertising revenue is not directly related to the Institute's tax-exempt purpose and is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Accordingly, the Organization recognized $213,897 of unrelated business income in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

The Organization annually files IRS Form 990 - Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax reporting various information that the IRS uses to monitor the activities of tax-exempt entities. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to federal income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2020. Further, there were no tax penalties or interest recognized during the year or accrued at year end.

Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

The Organization has adopted the provisions of ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes, relating to uncertain tax positions. ASC Topic 740 provides a consistent framework to determine the appropriate level of tax reserves to maintain for uncertain tax positions.

The effects of tax positions are recognized in the consolidated financial statements consistent with amounts reflected in tax returns filed or expected to be filed with taxing authorities. For tax positions the Organization considers to be uncertain, current or deferred tax liabilities are recognized or assets de-recognized, when it is probable that an income tax liability has been incurred and the amount is reasonably estimable, or when it is probable that a tax benefit, such as a tax credit or loss carryforward, will be disallowed by a taxing authority.

No amounts have been identified, or recorded, as uncertain tax positions.

Advertising

Advertising costs are expensed when incurred. Advertising costs totaled $3,163 during 2023.

Management Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to make many estimates and assumptions that may have a material impact on the Organization's consolidated financial statements and related disclosures and on the comparability of such information over different reporting periods. All such estimates and assumptions affect reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, as well as disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. Estimates and assumptions are based on management's experience and other information available prior to the issuance of the consolidated financial statements. Materially different results can occur as circumstances change and additional information becomes known.

NOTE 3 – NET ASSETS - WITH DONOR RESTRICTIONS

The Organization received contributions totaling $637,361 during 2023 that were subject to expenditure for specified purposes.

Releases of net assets with donor restrictions during 2023, are as follows:

Program:

Administrative State	$ 12,361
BP Fellows	4,773
Education Policy	75,000
School Board Elections	300,000
Total	$ 392,134

Net assets with donor restrictions are for the following purposes at December 31:

Program:

BP Fellows	$ 21,227
Education Policy	75,000
Endorsement Portal	50,000
ESG Policy	200,000

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2023

NOTE 4 – INVESTMENTS

The Organization records financial instruments (investments) at fair value. FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, provides the framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). ASC Topic 820 requires fair value measurements to be separately disclosed by level within the fair value hierarchy.

The three levels of fair value hierarchy under ASC Topic 820 are described as follows:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Organization has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include: quoted market prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Valuation is generated from model-based techniques that use at least one significant assumption not observable in the market. These unobservable assumptions reflect the estimates of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

At December 31, 2023, the Organization's investments consisted of a portfolio of financial instruments that included short and intermediate-term bond funds. These investments are valued based on a quoted market price for identical assets in active markets that the Organization has the ability to access and are included in Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

The Organization held no Level 3 (or Level 2) assets at December 31, 2023. As a result, there were no changes in the fair value of Level 3 assets to report for the year.

NOTE 5 – RETIREMENT PLAN

The Organization sponsors a qualified defined contribution 401(k) plan. All employees who meet certain requirements are eligible to participate in the Plan. The Organization may match employee contributions at a rate determined annually by the management. There was no matching contribution during 2023.

NOTE 6 – MAJOR DONORS

One donor accounted for $3,860,000 (approximately 44%) of the Organization's total support during 2023. There were no amounts due from this donor at December 31, 2023.

NOTE 7 – LIQUIDITY

The Organization has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due. The Organization's financial assets available within one year of the statement of financial position date for general expenditure are as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents	$ 4,917,612
Accounts receivable	625,226
Investments	267,104
Total	$ 5,809,942

NOTE 8 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In accordance with ASC 855, Subsequent Events, the Organization evaluated subsequent events through August 2, 2024, the date these consolidated financial statements were available to be issued. There were no material subsequent events that required recognition or additional disclosure in these consolidated financial statements.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

To the Board of Directors
Lucy Burns Institute, Inc. d/b/a Ballotpedia and Subsidiary
Middleton, Wisconsin

The accompanying supplementary information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from, and related directly to, the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The supplementary information has been subjected to the audit procedures applied in our audit of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.
